

Mark Snodgrass

Mark Snodgrass is a graduate of Texas Tech University and St. Mary's School of Law. Mark is a solo practitioner devoted exclusively to defending the rights of the citizen accused. Mark has lectured all across the state of Texas on various subjects relating to the criminal law. Mark is a past president of the Lubbock Criminal Defense Lawyers Association. Mark served on the board of directors of TCDLA, from 2003-2010. Mark has served on the executive committee as well as several other TCDLA committees. Mark is the immediate past chair of the Texas Criminal Defense Lawyers Project.

Updated 9/20/10